Third Party Liability. Every person on Glendining & Co's premises at any time shall be deemed to be there at his or her risk. He or she shall have no claim against Glendining & Co in respect of any accident which may occur or injury, damage or loss howsoever caused, save insofar as the injury, damage or loss shall be caused by the direct negligence of Glendining & Co employees.

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SALE

1 Definitions In these Conditions Glendining & Co, who act only as auctioneers and agents for the vendor, are called "the Auctioneers", and the representative of Glendining & Co conducting the auction is called "The Auctioneer".

2 General Whilst Glendining & Co make every effort to ensure the accuracy of their catalogue and the description of any lot:

a) Each lot as set out in the catalogue or as divided or combined with any other lot or lots is sold by the vendor with all faults, imperfections and errors of descriptions.

b) Glendining & Co do not accept responsibility for the authenticity, attribution, genuineness, origin, authorship, date, age, period, condition or quality of any lot, unless they have been instructed in writing by the vendor so to certify, and in such case the Auctioneers do so as agents of the vendor and are not themselves responsible for such claims.

c) All statements, whether printed in the catalogue or made orally, as to any of the matters set out in b) above are statements of opinion only and are not to be taken as being or implying any warranties or representations of fact by Glendining & Co, unless they have been instructed in writing by the vendor so to certify, and in such case the Auctioneers do so as agents of the vendor and are not themselves responsible for such claims.

d) Any claim under any Statute must be received in writing by the Auctioneer within ten days of the day of the sale.

3 The Auction

a) The Auctioneer has absolute discretion to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale, to refuse bids, regulate bidding or cancel the sale without in any case giving any reason or without previous notice. He may bid on behalf of the vendor for all goods which are being offered subject to reserve or at the Auctioneer's discretion.

b) The highest bidder shall be the buyer except in the case of a dispute. If during the auction the Auctioneer considers that a dispute has arisen, he has absolute discretion to settle it or to re-offer the lot. The Auctioneer may at his sole discretion determine the advance of bidding or refuse a bid.

c) Each lot is put up for sale subject to any reserve price placed by the vendor. Where there is no reserve price (but not otherwise) the seller has the right to bid either personally or by any one person (who may be the Auctioneer).

d) All conditions, notices, descriptions, statements and other matters in the catalogue and elsewhere concerning any lot are subject to any statements modifying or affecting the same made by the Auctioneer from the rostrum prior to any bid being accepted for the lot.

4 Rescission Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions, if within fourteen days after the sale Glendining & Co have received from the buyer of any lot notice in writing that in his view the lot is a deliberate forgery and within twenty-one days after such notification the buyer returns the same to Glendining & Co in the same condition as at the time of sale and by producing evidence, the burden of proof to be upon the buyer, satisfies Glendining & Co that considered in the light of the entry in the catalogue the lot is a deliberate forgery, then the sale of the lot will be rescinded and the purchase price of the same refunded. Both the buyer and the vendor agree to be bound by the decision of Glendining & Co

5 Default Glendining & Co disclaim responsibility for default by either the buyer or the vendor because they act as agents for the vendor only and therefore do not pay out to the vendor until payment is received from the buyer. Instructions given by telephone are accepted at the sender's risk and must be confirmed in writing forthwith.

6 In the event of a sale by private treaty both the vendor and the buyer agree to be bound by the General and any Special Conditions of Sale.

VENDORS CONDITIONS

7 Instructions As Glendining & Co are auctioneers, all goods delivered to Glendining & Co's premises will be deemed to be delivered for sale by auction unless otherwise previously stated in writing and will be catalogued and sold at Glendining & Co's discretion and accepted by Glendining & Co subject to all the Sale Conditions. By delivering the goods to Glendining & Co for inclusion in their auction sales each vendor acknowledges that he or she has accepted and agreed to be bound by all these Conditions.

8 Collections. Glendining & Co do not themselves usually undertake the collection of goods but will, if required in writing, instruct a contractor on the vendor's behalf in their capacity as agents. Glendining & Co disclaim all responsibility for loss or damage to goods or for unauthorised removal of goods and for damage to premises caused by the contractor who should be insured for such risks. Unless instructions are received to the contrary the charge for these services will be deducted from the proceeds of sale.

9 Loss or Damage Glendining & Co disclaim all responsibility for loss or damage to goods or for unauthorised removal of goods unless caused by the direct negligence of their employees.

10 Storage Glendining & Co reserve the right to store or arrange for the storage of goods delivered to them for sale either on their own premises or elsewhere at their sole discretion. They exempt themselves from any liability for loss or damage to goods delivered to their sale rooms without sufficient sale instructions (unless the loss or damage is caused by the negligence of their employees) and reserve the right to make a minimum storage charge at 25p per lot per day for such goods.

11 Right to Sell Vendors will be charged for goods left on the premises if the vendor has been requested to remove them and if the goods are not removed within twenty-one days of such request Glendining & Co reserve the right to sell the goods to defray costs and storage charges.

12 Insurance

a) Unless otherwise instructed in writing all goods on Glendining & Co's premises and in their custody will be held insured against the risks of fire, theft following forcible entry and water damage (but not against accidental breakage or damage) for which insurance Glendining & Co will charge a premium of £1 per £100 (minimum £1). The value of the goods so covered shall be the gross amount realised, or in the case of unsold lots the best bid, or in the case of goods withdrawn prior to a sale that which the specialised staff of Glendining & Co shall in their absolute discretion estimate to be the auction value of such goods.

b) Glendining & Co shall not be responsible for damage to or the loss, theft or destruction of any goods not so insured upon the owner's written instructions.
c) Glendining & Co shall not be responsible for accidental breakage, loss or damage howsoever caused unless directly caused by negligence of their employees.
d) In respect of any article delivered to Glendining & Co if the vendor has in force a policy or policies of insurance in which the article is specifically mentioned as being insured, whether or not for an agreed sum or value, the vendor shall notify his insurers of and shall himself note Glendining & Co's interest as bailees in such policy or policies.

13 Reserves
a) All goods are put up for sale WITHOUT RESERVE at the Auctioneer's discretion unless written instructions as to reserves are received by one hour prior to the commencement of the sale.
b) In the event of any reserve price not being reached at auction Glendining & Co are empowered to sell after the auction, by private treaty, at not less than the reserve price, as long as the goods remain on Glendining & Co's premises. In the event of such a sale by private treaty the Conditions of Sale applicable to a buyer governing the auction will apply.

14 Indemnity The vendor shall duly indemnify Glendining & Co against any claims in connection with any goods sold by Glendining & Co on the vendor's behalf.

15 Value Added Tax A vendor who sends for sale by auction any chattel(s) which is an asset of his business must disclose to the Auctioneer whether or not he is a registered person for Value Added Tax purposes and, if so, his registered number and whether or not he intends to operate the special scheme covering works of art, etc. This information must be supplied to the Auctioneer on or prior to delivery of the goods.

16 The vendor authorises the Auctioneer to deduct commission and expenses at the stated rates from the hammer price and acknowledges the Auctioneer's right to retain any premium payable by the purchaser.

17 Rights to Photographs and Illustrations The vendor gives Glendining & Co full and absolute right to photograph and illustrate any lot placed in its hands for sale and to use such photographs and illustrations and any photographs provided by the vendor at any time at its absolute discretion (whether or not in connection with the auction).

BUYERS CONDITIONS

18 Inspection Each buyer by making a bid for a lot acknowledges that he has satisfied himself fully before bidding by inspection or otherwise as to all the Sale Conditions the physical condition of and description of the lot including but not restricted to whether the lot is damaged or has been repaired or restored.

19 Property and Risk Legal title will not pass to the buyer until the lot(s) has been paid for in full and the Auctioneers shall be entitled to a lien on any lot sold until the purchase price (as defined in 23 below) is paid in full but each lot is at the sole risk of the buyer from the fall of the hammer. Each buyer shall forthwith give his full names and permanent address and if called upon to do so by the Auctioneer shall forthwith pay to Glendining & Co such proportion of the purchase price as the Auctioneer may require. If the buyer fails to do so, the lot may at the Auctioneer's sole discretion be put up again and re-sold.

20 Every bidder shall be deemed to act as principal unless there is in force a written acknowledgement by Glendining & Co that he acts as agent on behalf of a named principal.

21 Removal of Goods
a) No purchase shall be claimed or removed until it has been paid for and the sale has been concluded. All purchases shall be paid for and removed at the buyer's risk and expense by the end of the second working day after the sale, failing which the Auctioneer shall not be responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, and all lots not so removed shall remain at the risk of the buyer and subject to a minimum warehousing charge of 25p per lot per day. If they are not paid for and removed within seven days of the sale the Auctioneer may re-sell them by auction or privately without notice to the buyer. Any liability which there may be on the part of the Auctioneer in respect of any loss shall be restricted to a maximum of the price paid by the buyer of the lot.
b) In the event of any failure of the buyers to comply with any of the above conditions the damages recoverable by the seller or the Auctioneers from the defaulter shall include any loss arising on any re-sale of the lot, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales, and together with interest at 2% above Midland Bank PLC Base Rate upon the price of any lot which has not been paid for within 48 hours of the sale, and any money deposited in part payment shall be held by the Auctioneers on account of any liability of the defaulter to them or to the seller. The Auctioneers are unable to accept payment from successful bidders other than in cash or by the bidder's own cheque. Cheques drawn by third parties, whether in the Auctioneers' favour or requiring endorsement, cannot be accepted.

22 Value Added Tax The Buyer will be liable to pay V.A.T. at the standard rate on the hammer price on those Lots indicated with a dagger (†) after the Lot number. This V.A.T. is refundable on proof of export by Overseas Buyers within 28 days of Sale.

23 Purchase Price The purchaser shall pay the hammer price together with a premium of 10% of the hammer price. The premium is NOT negotiable and attracts V.A.T. at the standard rate and is payable by ALL purchasers. The vendor authorises the Auctioneer to deduct commission and expenses at the stated rates from the hammer price and acknowledges the Auctioneer's right to retain the premium payable by the purchaser.

PREFACE

Frederick Willis was born in 1889, and his wealth came from the family steel business, F. Willis & Co., at the Hall Street Works, West Bromwich. His interest in coin collecting must have started whilst he was still quite young, but he is remembered from the war years onwards, more from his dealing activities than his collecting. He would attend auctions at Glendining's and always took the seat second along from the rostrum on the dealers' table, next to Baldwin's and opposite Spink's. Records of his dealings are sparse, but one note book shows sales of £395/16/6 in 1942, increasing to £2,419/19/3 in 1953, whilst he seems to have spent £32/7/9 at Glendining's in 1939, increasing to a bumper year in 1948, with total spending of £5,288/0/9.

He met his wife, Mollie, in about 1938, and they shared a mutual interest in antiques. During the war years they both drove ambulances for the ARP. In 1976 their home in the Four Oaks area of Birmingham was raided in a violent armed robbery. The collection of coins was kept in a purpose built strong room, with five safes arranged along one wall. The couple were badly treated, bound and gagged, and many of the gold coins and specimen sets in the collection were stolen and never recovered—thus explaining the large gaps in the collection as it now stands. The story was widely reported in the national and local press, and a value of £250,000 was placed on the missing coins. The silver, for the most part, remained intact, and these are the coins now offered for sale. Fred Willis, who never fully recovered from the robbery, died in 1978. His widow, who survived him by twelve years, died shortly before Christmas 1990.

This preface originally appeared in the catalogue of the sale of the first part of the Willis Collection, on June 5th, 1991. That sale covered the British coins from the period of Edward III to the Commonwealth, being particularly stong in the coins of the reign of Charles I. A number of Ancient coins from the Willis Collection were sold in a separate sale on June 6th. The present catalogue continues the collection, starting with a slight overlap with coins of Oliver Cromwell. Although the sale contains a number of important gold coins, it will stand as one of the finest runs of British milled silver coins to be offered in recent years. The coins in both sales offer a glimpse of a generation of collecting that, sadly, is no longer with us.

We hope that the two catalogues will be kept together as a permanent record of an important collection, and again there will be special tickets issued stating the Willis provenance.

*432 Spanish Dollar, Charles IV, 1794 PR, Potosi, with identical countermark, 27.04gms. (ESC 131). Coin from worn dies and weak in places, but almost as struck, scarce for mint, rare in this state. (£150 – 200) 1

*433 Spanish Dollar, Charles III, 1774 PJ, Madrid, with identical countermark, 26.73gms. (cf. ESC 135). Coin very fine, with nick to obverse rim (11 o'clock), toned, extremely rare. (£300 – 400) 1

∴ The footnote to ESC 135 "only exists of Seville mint for Charles IV" is incorrect, countermarked Dollars of Madrid are known. Pedigree untraced.

*434 Spanish Dollar, Charles IV, 1795 FM, Mexico, countermarked with head of George III in octagonal indent, 26.86gms. (ESC 138). Very fine. (£80 – 120) 1

*435 Spanish Dollar, Charles IV, 1800 FM, Mexico, with similar countermark, 26.91gms. (ESC 138). Very fine. (£80 – 120) 1

∴ Ticket states "x Lemburger cost 17/6".

*437 Spanish Dollar, 1802 MF, Madrid, with similar countermark, but false, perhaps a contemporary copy, 27.05gms. (ESC 141). Good fine. (£40 – 60) 1

∴ Coin genuine but countermark false: the octagon though of neat work is not as high as the genuine mark and is very slightly wider; and the style of the portrait is poor. Provenance untraced.

*438 Pattern Dollar, 1798 (late Soho), A/1, shield reverse, bronzed copper proof, on a thick flan, ↑↓, 29.95gms. (ESC 170). Practically as struck, very fine. (£200 – 250) 1

∴ Ex Christie's, 9th May 1967. Struck from rusty dies, the rust marks most noticeable on reverse. Reverse with two hairline die cracks: one from a bead just to right of 1 (of 1798) extending to rim just above B of M.B.; the other from rim of shield in first quarter to field just below lowest leg of lion; together with a few other minor cracks – evidence of a late (Soho?) striking.

*439 Pattern Dollar, 1804, (early Soho), I/3, Garter type, ↑↓, 26.75gms. (ESC 182). Choice, lightly toned, colour a little darker at margins, brilliant and practically as struck, traces of undertype on both sides and rim, very rare. (£800 – 1,200) 1

∴ Ex Rashleigh Collection (lot 53).

440 Dollar, 1804, A/2, first leaf of laurel wreath to upright of E, stop after REX, 27.06gms. (ESC 144). Extremely fine, toned. (£100 – 150) 1

(ESC 148). Extremely fine or better, attractively toned, hairline scratch extending from hair across neck and with other faint hairlines in field, probably the result of brushing. From rusty obverse die and with flaw to rim (c. 11 o'clock); a pleasing coin and a rare variety. (£150 – 250) 1

443 Dollar, 1804, D/2, leaf to end of E, CHK close, 26.66gms. (ESC 158 – R2). About extremely fine, some traces of undertype both sides, a rare variety. (£80 – 120) 1

444 Proof Dollar, 1804, D/2, bronzed copper (early Soho), from same dies as last, but evidence of re-polishing, ↑↑, 23.9gms. (ESC 161 – R2). Good extremely fine, a few flecks of verdigris and a little dusty, rare. (£120 – 150) 1

*445 Dollar, 1804, E/2, leaf to centre of E, no stop after REX, 27.36gms. (ESC 164). Practically as struck, lightly and most attractively toned. (£200 – 300) 1

*446 Another, 26.90gms. Extremely fine, pleasing light freckled tone, traces of undertype on reverse, scarce variety. (£150 – 250) 1

*447 Proof Dollar, 1804, on a thick flan, E/2, from a re-touched and re-polished die, C.H.K. re-cut and with no stops before or after initials, ↑↓, 31.76gms. (ESC —; cf. 164 – 67). Virtually as struck, deeply and attractively toned, and excessively rare. (£1,000 – 1,500) 1

∴ Probably a Taylor restrike. Provenance untraced.

448 Pattern Dollar, 1811, K/5a, small head type (early Soho), bronzed copper proof, ↑↑, 22.4gms. (ESC 206 [K/5a]; Davis 37; L. & S. 126). Slight wear to high points, and with some surface marks, almost extremely fine. (£120 – 140) 1

*449 Pattern Dollar, 1811, K/5a, small head type, bronzed copper proof, on a thick flan, different dies to last, ↑↑, 30.9gms. (ESC 206 var. [K/5a]; Davis 37; L. & S. 129). Practically as struck, a litle dusty, some slight rust marks (a small cluster on lower part of cheek is the most noticeable), very rare. (£200 – 300) 1

∴ Possibly a Taylor restrike.

450 Three-Shillings (3), 1813, 1814, 1815 (ESC 421 – 23). First about extremely fine, rather scuffed on reverse, other two extremely fine, all have been cleaned. (£60 – 80) 3

Private Token Coinage

*452 Pattern Halfcrown token, 1799, by John Milton, for Col. Fullerton, restrike by Matthew Young or W. J. Taylor, ↑↑, 16.2gms. (Davis 1). Practically as struck, deeply and attractively toned with characteristic flaws and rust marks beneath bust, very rare. (£200 – 300) 1

∴ The background to these interesting and beautiful pieces is mentioned by Stewart [The Scottish Coinage] pp. 124 – 5, Davis [The Nineteenth Century Token Coinage] and more recently and in greater detail by Stainton ["John Milton, Medallist, 1759 – 1805" BNJ, 1983, pp. 147 – 149].
Col. Fullerton's intentions regarding his coinage, presumably inspired by the widespread circulation of copper tokens, are not entirely clear, but from surviving correspondence it seems likely he intended the coins to circulate widely, though perhaps only in Scotland. His plans were abandoned due to serious doubts over the legality of the issue. Although the coins have long been published, no attempt has been made to distinguish Young's restrikes from those of Taylor.

*453 Pattern Shilling token, 1799, by John Milton for Col. Fullerton, restrike by Matthew Young or W. J. Taylor, from heavily rusted obverse die, on a thick flan, ↑↑, 9.79gms. (Davis 13). With hairlines and a few other light marks, otherwise good extremely fine, deeply and attractively toned; characteristic rust marks on forehead, hair, beneath bust and in field to right of armour, very fine. (£200 – 250) 1

∵ The thick flan and heavy rust marks might suggest this is a late (Taylor) restrike. On the other hand, Taylor seems to have taken some pride in his products (viz the Soho restrikes), often improving the original dies by polishing away rust and reducing other flaws, and an earlier date for the present piece cannot be ruled out.

*454 Pattern Sixpence token, 1799, by John Milton for Col. Fullerton, restrike by Matthew Young or W. J. Taylor, ↑↓, 3.36gms. (Davis 14). Good extremely fine, deeply and attractively toned, rare. (£100 – 120) 1

*455 Another, on a heavier flan and with ↑↑, 4.09gms. Similar state, signs of light cleaning in the past. (£100 – 120) 1

*456 Pattern Halfpenny token, 1799, by John Milton for Col. Fullerton, struck in silver, restrike by Matthew Young or W. J. Taylor, ↑↑, 8.51gms. (Davis 5). A few light hairlines, almost as struck and attractively toned; characteristic flaw beneath bust. (£200 – 250) 1

*457 Perthshire, Deanston Works, Spanish Dollar, Charles III, 1773 FM, Mexico, countermarked DEANSTON WORKS and Beehive, FIVE SHILLINGS below, within circular indent, a modern mark (c. 1930?) from an original punch, 26.8gms. Fine. (£100 – 150) 1

∵ Ex Cokayne (lot 175 – £3.10.0) and Lingford (lot 755 – £3.5.0) collections.

∵ Bought Forrer, September 25th, 1946. The Glasgow Company was founded in 1809 by Charles, Lord Kinnaird, and fifteen other partners. In 1836 it merged with the Ship Bank.

*459 — Thistle Bank, Spanish Dollar, Charles III, 1780 FF, Mexico, countermarked THISTLE BANK., 4/9 in centre, 26.8gms. (Davis 81; Allen 42). Coin very fine, countermark about extremely fine and superior to the Allen specimen, extremely rare, only ten specimens of this variety (without the thistle countermark on reverse) recorded – five in institutional collections. (£400 – 500) 1

∵ Ex Cokayne (lot 155 – £7.10s) and Lingford (lot 738 – £8) collections. The Thistle Bank, Glasgow was founded in 1761, it was absorbed by the Glasgow Union Bank in 1836. See David McFarlan, "The Thistle Bank" (SNC March, 1980, pp. 92 – 3) for the believed sequence of issues.

*460 — Lanark Mills, Spanish Dollar, 1783 FM, Mexico, countermarked PAYABLE AT LANARK MILLS, 5/ incuse in centre within circular indent, 26.7gms. (Davis 83; Allen 59 – 71). Coin and countermark fine, rare, 92 specimens of this countermark recorded, 14 in institutional collections. (£100 – 150) 1

∴ Ex Glendining's, April 16th 1945 (lot 472). The factory of New Lanark was founded in 1784 by David Dale and Sir Richard Arkwright. The mills were sold in 1797 to the famous social reformer Robert Owen and two partners.

Last Coinage

*461 Proof or Pattern Two-Pounds, 1820, inscribed edge, ↑↓, 15.87gms. (S. 3784). Extremely fine, but somewhat scuffed, extremely rare. (£2,000 – 3,000) 1

462 Half-Sovereign, 1818 (S. 3786). Very fine. (£80 – 100) 1

463 Half-Sovereign, 1820 (S. 3786). Good very fine, has been cleaned. (£80 – 100) 1

*466 Pattern "Large Head" Crown, 1818, by Benedetto Pistrucci, large laureate head right, signed PISTRUCCI beneath truncation, legend around, date below, edge plain, ↑↑, 28.02gms. (ESC 234 – R5; L. & S. 180). Virtually as struck, deeply and attractively toned, extremely rare, a lovely example of this classic rarity. (£3,000 – 4,000) 1

∴ Ex Glendining's June 22nd 1948 (lot 76). The ESC rarity rating of R5 (five to ten examples extant) is imprecise. Based on auction appearances and coins institutionalised, it is likely in the opinion of the cataloguer, that at least nine or ten examples – and perhaps a few more – exist. Willis comments on his ticket inter alia "A beautiful coin in brilliant condition & of extreme rarity.... This is in my opinion better than the one sold at the Paget sale (Sep 25 1946). The Paget specimen sold for £100".

*467 Pattern "Large Head" Crown, 1818, by Benedetto Pistrucci, similar to last, edge inscribed [in letters that do not occupy the whole width of the edge], ↑↓, 27.90gms. (ESC 236 – R5; L. & S. 180). Good extremely fine, nicely toned, excessively rare. (£4,000 – 5,000) 1

∴ Ex Nobleman and Paget (lot 427 – £78) collections. Auction appearances indicate that large head patterns with inscribed edges (ESC 236 – R5) are far rarer than those with plain edges and rarer than the ESC rating suggests.

*468 Crown, 1818, regnal year LVIII, 28.32gms. (ESC 211). A superb example, trivial friction to very highest points, virtually as struck, dark, slightly mottled tone, with underlying brilliance. (£180 – 250) 1

*470 Crown, 1818, regnal year LIX, 28.26gms. (ESC 214). A few light marks and hairlines, good extremely fine, but obverse has been lightly cleaned. (£150 – 200) 1

*473 Another, 28.34gms. Good extremely fine, pleasing even grey tone. (£200 – 250) 1

474 Crown, 1819, regnal year LX, 28.34gms. (ESC 216). Extremely fine, some hairlines and other light marks, cleaned in the past. (£80 – 120) 1

Droz after Monneron's pattern by Dupre, figure of Hercules, seated on a lion's skin, sea shore and column behind, VIS VNITATE FORIOR, rev. crowned shield, DECVS ET TUTAMEN, plain edge, ↑↑, 26.04gms. (ESC 243 – R5). Practically mint state and beautifully toned, extremely rare, a lovely example of this curious pattern. (£2,000 – 3,000) 1

∴ Ex Lingford collection (lot 498 – £48).

*477 Another, bronzed Æ, ↑↑, 28.23gms. (ESC 244 – R4). Good extremely fine, a little dusty, extremely rare. (£300 – 400) 1

∴ Ex Glendining's, 15th March, 1962 (lot 239).

484 Another (ESC 623). Slight friction to high points, good extremely fine. (£60 – 80) 1

486 Shillings, 1816, 1817, 1818, 1819, 1820 (ESC 1228, 1232, 1234, 1235, 1236). Extremely fine or better, toned, third scarce. (£80 – 120) 1

∴ Halfcrowns of 1821, with heavier garnishing on the reverse (as the Halfcrowns of 1823) are recorded in ESC though not accorded a separate number. In fact this reverse is quite distinct, garnishing apart, differing in a number of other ways from the earlier reverse: the leaves of the thistle are longer and less scalloped in shape, with seven tips to the right and eight to the left (instead of twelve and thirteen); the rose is slightly closer to the shield; the central stem of the shamrock on the right crosses the two lowest stems at a higher point. Whether all proofs of 1821 were struck with this reverse type is not known at present.

Subscriptions to our catalogues cover a full twelve month period from the time that payment is received. Our calendar for this year will include some 18 sales, mostly coin sales, of which four will feature coins of the Ancient World. A further three will feature Historical Medals. Subscribers can either receive ALL coin catalogues, or choose to subscribe to these two specialist areas separately. As always a further four sales will feature Orders, Decorations, Medals and Militaria, and catalogues for these sales continue to be a separate category.

For the convenience of customers the subscriptions are priced according to differing postal zones, and all overseas catalogues are sent by airmail.
